INDUCTEE:
DIANE DIONIS
COACH
HOLY TRINITY BRIDGEPORT

Diane Dionis was born on May 18, 1957, in Bridgeport, Connecticut to Danielle and Toni Dionis. Diane has a younger sister, Cindy Waldron. Toni was a Sunday school teacher at Holy Trinity. Danny and Toni were constantly in the gym volunteering their time and Diane followed their example. Keeping score as a teenager, then coaching, and running a summer camp and family nights. “I enjoyed watching the boys grow on and off the court.”

The family nights in the spring would have anywhere from 40 to 60 children playing in the gym on a Friday from 6pm to 10pm. Diane attended Andrew Warde High School and played varsity basketball, softball, and volleyball. While in college at Sacred Heart University, she played all three sports basketball, softball, and volleyball. Her love of sports made her become an official in these three sports, working high school games and men’s and women’s softball games throughout leagues in Connecticut. Diane has two children, Timothy and Christopher Iassogna and a grandson, James (JJ) she currently lives in Stratford with her family. “I recently retired after working 34 1/2 years from the Fairfield board of education in June 2023. I plan to do a lot of traveling and enjoy my classic cars and family!”

INDUCTEE:

PETROS TAXILARIDIS
COACH
HOLY TRINITY BRIDGPORT

Petros was a cherished member of the Holy Trinity Church. He was born on June 18, 1948, in Thessaloniki, Greece.

In 1978, along with his wife Vasilia; they sought a brighter future in the United States and made Bridgeport, Connecticut their home. Petros and Vasilia had two children, George and Elena. Petros was a dedicated family man who took immense joy in being a loving Papou.

His professional journey began as a self-employed interior and exterior remodeler, where he spent 20 years leaving his mark on countless homes and hearts throughout Fairfield County. In addition to his career, Petros was an active member of the Holy Trinity community.

He served as head volleyball coach for the Holy Trinity Varsity Girls team, winning numerous championships from 1989 to 1993. His dedication further shone at Holy Trinity Church festivals, where he skillfully roasted lamb for all to enjoy. On March 31, 2014, his loss left a void in the hearts of those who knew him, but his memory lives on as an embodiment of love, dedication, and service to family and community, inspiring us all to cherish hope, love, and community bonds.

INDUCTEE:

CHRIS DANAS

PLAYER, COACH, ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

HOLY TRINITY BRIDGEPORT

Chris Danas grew up in this program and played basketball from 1977 to 1988. Motivated to pay forward those great experiences Chris began coaching JV & Varsity basketball teams from 2011 to 2020. During that time the JV team won the 2013 championship, and Varsity 2017, 2019 and 2020! From 2012 to 2020 Chris simultaneously was the Athletic Director overseeing both Volleyball and Basketball programs. Chris is dedicated to the growth of this program and tonight's event is evidence of that. Chris and the Athletic Committee led the way to the first Hall of Fame in 2015. He also returned Holy Trinity Bridgeport to the Agganis Basketball Tournament in Lynn, MA in 2017 and 2018, where they faced other Greek Orthodox teams from all over the country. Incredibly fun filled yet competitive weekends where they played up to 9 games in a single weekend. The effort and support of the players and families was just as incredible, and with all that positive energy, sense of community, team work and sportsmanship, Holy Trinity took home the championship in 2017 and second place in 2018. Chris and Pam have had the pleasure of watching both of their children play basketball at Holy Trinity. Their daughter Alex played in 2009 and 2010, and their son Christopher from 2012 to 2020; most years Chris was also his coach. The years have been filled with hard work, sweat, tears, laughter, wins, losses, competitiveness, community and great fun! Chris is humbled to be a part of the past, present and future, and honored to work with the families of Holy Trinity. In addition to Athletics, Chris has been the chair of our annual Festival from 2017 to present, Gyro Days 2020 to present, Treasurer 2021 to present and has been a parish Council member 2020 to present. There have been so many great times that Chris has enjoyed, however it's the players and their families that are most memorable to him. And if you ask his former players about his coaching style they might say he's strict and systematic; AND has a big heart. And at times, that heart takes over in a very visible way; real men wear pink and shed tears.

INDUCTEE:

JOHN LEONIDAS PERTESIS

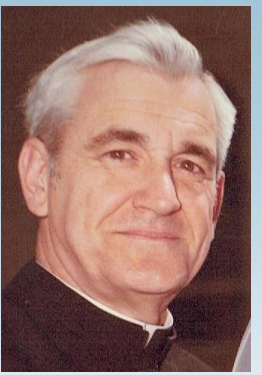
John has many fond memories of playing with his brother and teammates that have become lifelong friends. One memory that will always stand out is playing in a tournament in Springfield Massachusetts. All the players were playing Blackjack in one of the rooms and John won all his coach John Crowe's money.

John lives in Fairfield with his family.

INDUCTEE:

Reverend Protopresbyter John Duranko



The Very Reverend Protopresbyter John Duranko served as the priest of St. John the Baptist Carpatho-Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic Church on Mill Hill Avenue, Bridgeport, CT for 30 years. He was born in Johnstown, PA, in 1931, and ordained to the priesthood in 1957, shortly after marrying his wife Pani Patricia Duranko. His first parish assignment was St. Nicholas Church in Gary, IN, then was transferred to Bridgeport in 1971. Fr. John reposed on December 8, 2022, and is survived by Pani Patricia, his children Deborah (Dave) Tvardzik, Daria (Kevin) Gerety, John (Pam) Duranko, and Stephen Duranko. Grandchildren: David (Yolanda) Tvardzik, Stephen (Kari) Tvardzik, Stephen Duranko, John and Katherine Duranko, and Liam Gerety. Great Grandchildren: Davey, Chloe, and Cameron Tvardzik. Fr. John was on the board for the construction of Camp Nazareth Retreat and Conference Center located in Mercer, PA, which serves a variety of groups and events, including religious camps, sports camps, retreats. Fr. John was instrumental in promoting numerous church sports leagues. He founded the intra-church big pin bowling league at Town Fair Lanes and was a team member of two church duck pin leagues. Fr. John was a valued team member in all bowling leagues, averaging 195 in big pin bowling. He along with Charles Gullotta (HOF 2021) began the Charles Gullotta Golf Tournament. During one of the tournaments, Fr. John won an iron for driving the ball closest to the hole. In 1973, Fr. John began playing on St. John's Church softball team, retiring in 2004. He was the pitcher and captain for St. John's team helping them win four championships in 1996, 1997, 1999, and 2000. Fr. John was well known for his incredibly high arc pitching. His pitches were so difficult to hit that opposing teams would groan when they saw Fr. John warming up on the mound. He was presented a trophy in grateful appreciation for his inspirational leadership guiding the team to the championships. Fr. John instilled his love of sports into his children, never missing CEOBL basketball games, baseball, football, softball or tennis matches. You would often hear him coaching from the sidelines. No matter what the sport, Fr. John diligently taught and encouraged his family to be the best that they could be. Even well into his retirement, you would find him cheering on his grand and great grandchildren at their sporting events. At family picnics, Fr. John would be found reprising his role as pitcher for family wiffleball games and playing tennis, billiards, ping pong, touch football, and cornhole. Fr. John's motto was always "one more game!" A born leader, Fr. John served as a guide and inspiration on and off the field for a generation of parishioners at St. John's. His enthusiastic leadership of so many church athletic events serve as one of many testaments to his devotion to and the love of his flock. He touched numerous lives and is deeply missed by all.

INDUCTEE:
MIKE HRITZ
HOLY TRINITY BRIDGEPORT

Mike was born on December 4th, 1957, to Michael Hritz and Helen Soltis Hritz. He graduated from the University of Connecticut with a BS in Electrical Engineering in 1981. In college, Mike's love for God and the Orthodox Church made him realize that he did not want an ordinary "career" but rather a life of service to the church. Years earlier he had been invited by Olga Antonuk to sing at her church (St Nicholas Stratford) for Holy Week services. Olga was first of seven voice teachers Mike studied with. Olga was asked to organize a pan-Orthodox choir and enlisted Mike in preparing books for the choir for the Sunday afternoon Vespers services during the Great Fast. On more than one occasion Mike remembers singing in the choir at Vespers with his basketball uniform under his suit. Those were his favorite days, because those two activities, church singing, and basketball dominated Mikes life. Mike went back to school and got his master's degree in music education, in 1997 at the University of Bridgeport. Mike has been the choir director at numerous churches over the years in the area. Mike was invited to sing in the Russian Diaspora Choir for the Re-Unification of the Russian Church at Christ the Savior Cathedral in Moscow, on Ascension Day 2007. The person that influenced Mike the most was his father Michael "Lefty" Hritz. He gave Mike insights and tips every game at half-time. As much he sought to help him to be victorious, his main emphasis was always on sportsmanship and being thankful for having the opportunity to play. Mike's dad told him about these guys from Holy Trinity (whom he played against in previous years) that had put up their houses as collateral to get a loan to build the Holy Trinity gym. "I respected those guys immensely, even though those same guys spent more time chasing me off the court during time-outs and quarter breaks more times than I could possibly count." What those men did for me and so many others will never be forgotten or taken lightly by this ever grateful athlete. I am thankful towards not only them, but all their successors and emulators, who run the league meetings, make schedules, hire refs, open gyms, and sell refreshments; all to provide for players and fans the opportunity to come together for good Christian fellowship and sportsmanship. Their efforts to provide this opportunity reach into the lives of so many well beyond the things they are aware. My life has been incredibly influenced by this league and the efforts of those who started it and maintained it. I know that many others feel the same way. Mike has been playing basketball since he was 7 years old, has been the MVP in every CEOBL division, and a member of multiple championship teams in each division. Mike has played for St. John, Holy Trinity BPT, Holy Trinity NR, St. Barbara and currently plays with St. Nicholas. Mike's devotion to playing is amazing, this past season he drove to Bridgeport from Pennsylvania every Sunday after church to play. Mike lives in Milford with his wife Lori, so now the commute to the games will be more manageable.

INDUCTEE:

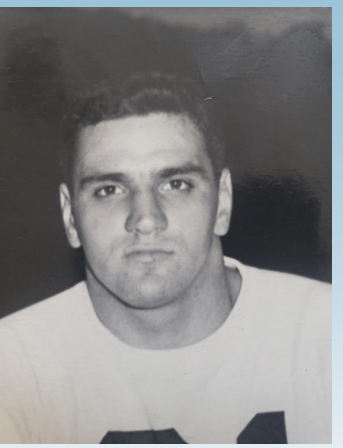
JAMES "JAMIE" GLOVER
PLAYER
HOLY TRINITY NEW ROCHELLE

Jamie was born March 22nd, 1957, to James and Marette Glover. James and Marette had three children Elaine, William (deceased 1984) and Jamie. Jamie married Jeanette in 1988, together they have four children Alex (married to Corina), Christian, Loukas and Julian.

Jamie graduated from Franklin and Marshall College in 1979, and earned his Master's in finance at NYU in 1984. Jamie worked in finance for many years. He has been the owner of Green Hybrid Energy Solutions for the past thirteen years. Jamie played in the CEOBL from 1974 to 2019. He was the league MVP in the intermediate division in 1974. Jamie was a member of 12 Championship teams and was an all-star nine times. Jamie has fond memories of traveling to tournaments throughout the country with his teammates. One of the things that stands out is the players that his team picked up from other CEOBL teams to play with in those tournaments. "Friendship and fellowship are what make this league special. I have made lifelong friends playing in this league not only teammates, but opponents as well" Jamie has coached little league baseball, basketball, and football throughout the years.

Jamie and Jeanette live in Harrison NY.

INDUCTEE:
CHARLES “CHARLIE” STICKA
COACH
SAINT GEORGE HARTFORD



Charlie was born on September 13, 1933 in Natick Mass to Vasili and Alexandra Sticka. Charlie is one of four children. He has two sisters Dorothy and Virginia and a brother Lawrence. Charlie married Gloria Morris on June 15M 1958. They had two sons Greg and Bill; and four grandchildren Nicholas, Charlie, Charles, and Alexis. Sadly, Gloria died in 2009 at the age of 72. Charlie attended Natick high school and Trinity Pawling high school. He was a four-sport star in Basketball, Football, Baseball and Indoor and Outdoor Track. Charlie was an All-American in Football in 1950. He attended Trinity College from 1952 to1956, and was starting running back for all four years. Trinity was undefeated in three of those four years. Charlie also played baseball for four years in college, batting .485 for his career. In 1955 Charlie was invited to play in the East-West Shrine All-star game. He was the only division three player to be invited. While there he was invited to play on the college all-star team by Curly Lambeau against the NY Giants. Frank Leahy wrote an article about Charlie for Life Magazine. Charlie was on one page and on the opposite page was an article about Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard known as Mister Outside and Mister Inside. Both won the Heisman Trophy. Giving this some perspective Frank Leahy was the coach of Notre Dame College, he won Four National Championships as coach and two as a player. “Curly” Lambeau co-founded the Green Bay Packers in 1919 and was the franchise’s coach and GM in the 1920s, 1930s, and 1940s. As a coach, Lambeau won six NFL Championships and is fifth all-time in regular season coaching wins, with 226. Lambeau field, the home of the Green Bay Packers, is named in his honor. To keep himself busy once Football was over Charlie played baseball in the Halifax league. In 1954 he played for a team that was affiliated with the Milwaukee Braves and in 1955 he played for a team affiliated with the Philadelphia Phillies. Charlie was drafted by Los Angeles Rams in 1956; during training camp he injured his knee. In 1957 he tore his hamstring and groin. He was waived in 1957. In 1958 the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL signed Charlie as a running back. Charlie was working as an insurance salesman during this time and was making more money selling insurance than playing football, and he decided to retire. 42 years later he retired as an insurance Agent in 1998. Charlie has been a member of St. George Hartford for 55 years. He has coached basketball and little league baseball since 1960. Charlie has been inducted in to other Halls of Fame including the Sports Writers Alliance 2002 (for perspective Geno Auriemma and Jim Calhoun have both been inducted), Natick HS hall of fame 2016, Trinity College Hall of Fame 2021, Trinity- Pawling HS Hall of fame 2023, and Holy Trinity Hall of Fame 2023. Charlie has lived in Wethersfield Connecticut for the past 55 years.

Dear Coach Danas,

Thank you for your commitment and dedication to the basketball program at our church. Under you, the program elevated to new levels. You inspired countless groups to play Holy Trinity's brand (hard work, sportsmanship, integrity and fairness) of basketball that led to success and numerous championships, including the Agganis tournament in Lynn, MA. That tournament win is still one of our fondest memories. More importantly, you helped our teams form bonds that will last for many years to come. We are all grateful for having you as our coach. Letter from the Commissioner

Class of 2023, wow amazing how quickly time has moved along since our first class in 2015. My congratulations to all the inductees to the class of 2023. I have had the honor of being involved with the Hall of Fame selection committee since the beginning. One of my responsibilities is writing the biographies of the inductees. Occasionally the inductee or their representative sends in a complete biography that I just proofread. Many times, there is not enough information sent in and other times there is more information than I can possibly use. This year was one of those years that I had more information from a few individuals that I could have written a book about each of them. You may be wondering why I am bringing this up. Over the years my letters have had a theme one year the theme was time and how quickly it flies by. Another theme was lifelong friendships. This year after speaking to the inductees and gathering information that was not initially sent in, I was stunned at the depth of two of the inductees that I have known for decades. I was unaware of their accomplishments over the years. Mike Hritz who I met when I was 10 years old, and he was a teenager at the time has always seemed a bit flaky to me. He has always had the long hair and came across antiestablishment, I will never forget when he showed up to the gym one night in his BUDMAN outfit, that sealed it for me that he was a bit nutty, so whenever I spoke to him I kind of dumbed down my conversations with him. During this process I found out that Mike has multiple degrees and is a very deep individual and I have a completely different perspective of him. The funny thing is that while speaking with Mike he blurted out "Tom, you know you are a lot smarter than I thought you were." While I was making assumptions about Mike, he was doing the same thing to me. Another individual that I have known for years is Mr. Sticka. I had heard that he played football in Canada when I was very young, but as the years passed by, I forgot about that and playing football in Canada isn't really a big deal to kid that was a Dolphins fan. Canada couldn't be further from Miami to a little kid if it were on the moon. So as the years went by Mr. Sticka kind of became this old loud guy that coached. Well, I am not going to go into everything that he has accomplished in this letter, but what is in his biography is just the highlights, take the time to read it and then speak with him I promise that you will enjoy it. Why am I telling you all this, what is the theme. Don't judge a book by its cover. I could give you examples like this for each of our inductees, but space is limited, and these inductees are great examples of the theme of never making assumption of someone without knowing them. We all make assumptions every day and have no idea what we are missing by not taking the time to speak with someone and truly getting to know them. The reason this is a good theme is because the way society has become it is easier to be adversaries than friends by assuming things about people. This league has been a conduit over the years for me to meet and make lifelong friends. We need to make sure this continues for the future generations that will play on our teams.

Congratulations to the inductees of the Hall of Fame Class of 2023.
